D01 Do you lack friends?Do you want to make more friends?If so,you may read on...

There's a certain beauty in being a lonely wolf,You have more time to do the things you want to do.But if you want to make more friends,and do things together with them,please consider these suggestions on how to meet people and form strong,lasting friendships

Spend more time around people and talk to them.If you want to make friends,you first need to put yourself out in order to meet people.Friends seldom come knocking on your door while you sit at home playing computer games.

Participate in an online community.You don't necessarily need to have a lot of common interests with people in order to make friends with them.Social networking sites such as We chat,Facebook,Twitter,and MySpace are great way to meet new people and learn more about the people you meet.

Join a sports team.A common misunderstanding about this is that you have to be realily good at playing a particular sport in order to make friends with others on the team,but not all teams are so comp eve.As long as you enjoy the sport and support your teammates,joining a local team could be a great way to make new friends

LETTER 1

Dear Ann,

I am going to give a dinner party next month.I want my guests to enjoy themselves and to feel comfortable.What is the secret of giving a successful party?

Sarah

LETTER 2

Dear Mary,

Cook something that would let you spend time with your guests.If a guest offers to help you in the kitchen,accept the offer.It often makes people feel more comfortable when they can help.

Before serving dinner,while your guests make small talks in the living room,offer them drinks.Some guests may like wine,but make sure to provide soft drinks for people who don't.

At the dinner table,let your guests serve themselves.Offer them a second serving after they finish,but don't ask more than once.Most guests will take more if they want.

Perhaps the most important rule of all is to be natural.Treat your guests as you want them to treat you when you're in their home-that is,act naturally toward them,and don't try too hard to be polite.Have a good time in a pleasant atmosphere.

Yours,

Vida

[答案]B

E01 England is not a big country: from north to south and from east to west it is only about three hundred miles across. But for a small country it has a surprising range of climate. People who have never visited England or who have visited only one part of it, often make the mistake of thinking that it is a cold and wet country. Except for the summer months of June to September, this is probably true of the North of England and the Midlands. In the south, however, the climate is much more pleasant. One result is that when people retire from a job in the north, they often prefer to move down to the milder south.

Perhaps the warmest part of the country is the south-west, which consists of the counties of Devon and Cornwall. The warm Gulf Stream flows across the North Atlantic Ocean from the Gulf of Mexico and makes the coastal regions of the south-west of England. Flowers and vegetables ripen as much as a month earlier than those elsewhere. Farmers in the area obtain a higher price for their vegetables and flowers because they are ready earlier. In winter there may be probably no snow at all in the south-west. This may be one of the reasons why the south-west is one of England's most popular holiday areas.

21-1. 【单选题】 The distance from the center of England to the south coast is about_____.

- A. one hundred miles
B. three hundred miles
C. one hundred and fifty miles

[答案]C

I01 In the past,American families tended to be quite large.Parents raising five or more children were common.Over the years,the size of the family is becoming smaller.One reason for this is an increase in the cost of living.

Generally,children attend schools for more years than they used to,making them financially dependent on their families longer.Moreover,children nowadays are better dressed and have more money to spend on entertainment.The parents are usually responsible for all the expenses.And families are less close than they used to be.More and more American mothers work away from home.The breakup of the family appears when the parents' divorce.A lot of children in the U.S.live part of their young lives with only one parent.Children grow up feeling unsettled as they are moved between their parents.Single parents often marry other single parents.In this type of family,unrelated children are forced to develop brother or sister relationship.

The situations of many American families today are not good.However,recent signs show that things are getting better.The divorce rate is declining(降低).Perhaps Americans have learned how important families are.

[答案]B

I02 I used to think education was the most important thing in my life. Recently my attitude has begun to change, although I still hold that it is essential for everyone in the world today. As a top junior student in my college, I was asked to make a speech on how to learn English well. Standing in front of the audience facing so many freshmen, I was trembling. I didn't remember any word that I had prepared. I ran out of the conference room without finishing my speech, leaving everyone puzzled. I cried that night in my room, feeling that I was a loser. Studying takes so much of my time that I feel unable to really develop myself. I am just storing knowledge; yet fail to communicate with others. I have received many awards in school, but they don't necessarily reflect anything about me. I don't know how to socialize. When I leave school I fear I will be of no use to society.

I realize that everyone has her or his own way of living. I want to change my lifestyle. Of course I will keep studying. Yet I plan to look for a part-time job, which might turn out to be a good chance to get to know society. I still believe that working my hardest does make me happy. I will still stay on in college, but I will not allow it to shelter me from the real world.

21. From this passage, we know that the author _____.

- A. does not think education is the most important thing in her life any more
- B. thinks that communication with other people is more important than education
- C. realizes that it is more important to really develop oneself than just to store knowledge

[答案]C

22. By saying that she is "a junior student" in her college, the author means that she is _____.

- A. a student in her third year in college
- B. a very young college student
- C. younger than most students in college

[答案]A

23. The author thinks the awards she has received _____.

- A. show that she is a top student
- B. show how much time she has spent in learning
- C. don't necessarily reflect her real self

[答案]C

24. The author fears that she will be of no use to society, mainly because _____.

- A. she feels she is a loser
- B. she does not know how to communicate with others
- C. studying takes too much of her time

[答案]B

25. Which of the following statements is NOT true according to the passage, when the author says that she wants to find a part-time job?

- A. The job might enable her to get to know society.
- B. She wants to change her lifestyle.
- C. Working part time while studying will make her happy.

M01 Mid-autumn Day is for families to get together in China. People show their thanks for the year's harvest and pray for another year of good harvest. Moon cake is a traditional gift and food that people give each other during the festival.

Mid-autumn Day was a harvest festival longtime ago. The story goes as follows.

Longtime ago, there were 10 badly behaved suns in the sky. Houyi, a capable archer shot down nine of them to save the people and the earth.

The hero Houyi went to the Kunlun Mountains and gained a pill from Xi Wang mu, the Goddess of the West. Xi told him that he would never die after he took the pill. When he came back home, he gave it to Chang'e, his wife, asking her to keep it safe.

While Houyi was away, an evil follower tried to steal the pill. Chang'e put it into her mouth and immediately floated to the moon.

Houyi cried for the loss of his wife. He laid a table in his yard and put out some of Chang'e's favorite foods. Moon cakes are among them. People then followed and prayed to Chang'e, now a goddess, to bring them happiness and bountiful harvests.

001 One study in the United States found that thirty-eight percent of foreign students said they had no close American friends.

Elisabeth Gareis teaches in the Department of Communication Studies at Baruch College in New York. She says efforts on how to improve relationships between foreign and American students have yet to be studied in detail. But she says these efforts should begin with the college or university and that these institutions have been working harder.

Ms. Gareis suggests that students should be encouraged to take part in different activities, such as taking walks, going on bike rides, field or camping trips, and attending parties, sporting events or film festivals. She says such activities should be held repeatedly throughout the school term to bring students together.

She also suggests that foreign students share housing with American students. She says if the new students make friends as they begin school, they will come to feel part of the life and traditions of the university, as well as create long-lasting friendships throughout their university career.

T01 Ten workers in China pushed their boss's car three miles home after an office party because they were all too drunk to drive. The group was enjoying a meal at a restaurant in downtown Changchun, Jilin Province (northeast China). When the party was over, Boss Zhang Fei found that he was too drunk to drive. Then suddenly they realized nobody had stayed sober enough to drive his car.

Drink-driving was listed as a dangerous offence in China in 2014, esp. when the driver is drunk. Those who break the law will have their driving license revoked, face a heavy fine and maybe put in jail. Zhang did not want to leave his car downtown and it was too late to call out another driver to drive the car for him. Someone then suggested they push the car home, and said that the exercise would do them all good. Thus, all ten quickly agreed and set off with Zhang at the wheel. All ten workers pushed their boss's car home through the city streets, laughing and singing during the 45-minute journey. Passers-by were shocked to see the group.

Traffic officers said that as long as the car's engine was not running, it would not be classed as drink-driving under the law. However, it is still very dangerous for so many people to push the car along the road, as it may cause traffic accidents.

D01 Domestic abuse happens when one person in a close relationship or marriage tries to control another. Domestic abuse that includes physical violence is called domestic violence.

Domestic violence and abuse are used for one purpose only; to gain and maintain total control over you. An abuser doesn't "play fair." Abusers use fear, guilt, shame to wear you down and keep you under his or her thumb. Your abuser may also threaten you, hurt you or hurt those around you.

Domestic abuse may happen among different groups of people. It occurs within all ages, genders, and economic levels. While women often suffer from it, men sometimes are victims too. People may get verbal and emotional abuse, even physical ones. The abusive behavior is never acceptable, whether it's coming from a man, a woman, a teenager, or an older adult. You deserve to feel valued, respected, and safe.

L02 Learning to drive isn’t as simple as people think.First, you need a good teacher.Its better to have lessons from a qualified driving instructor.These lessons are expensive, however, but it is worth the money.

Proper instructors have special cars, with extra mirrors and special controls, such as an extra brake pedal.They can use this if you have problems and stop the car themselves.This gives you confidence when you're learning. As well as worrying about how to use all the controls, looking in the mirrors and deciding where you're going, you have to workout what other drivers are doing.That’s why its better to learn to drive in the countryside on quiet roads rather than busy roads in town centers

You shouldn't spend too long on your first lessons, as there's a lot to remember.It's better to start with two or three one-hour lessons a week, then have one two-hour lesson a week after that.Of course, you also need to get as much extra practice as possible.Ask patient people to help you though.Then you need to decide on the route before you set off It's also a good idea to discuss what you want to practise each time.Make it clear you don't want any surprises.

Concentrate on one thing at a time and you'll quickly become a confident driver.

22-1.【判断题】 Lessons from a qualified driving instructor are usually cheap.[答案]F
