A01 A car accident can happen when you least expect it.You could be switching lanes,looking for a parking space or pulling out of your driveway,and all of a sudden,crash! Whether you hit someone or another driver hits you,you need to know what to do after a car accident.Here's a checklist to keep in mind when it comes to reporting your car accident.

(1)Take down the other driver's license plate number as well as the make,color and model of the vehicle ..If there is no pen and paper available,repeat the numbers in your head until you can write them down or snap a picture with your mobile phone.

(2) Call the police.Police will be needed on scene to direct traffic and to help get all vehicles to safety.Also,a police report is needed for the insurance company to determine who is responsible for paying the damages.

(3)Check for injuries to yourself and to your passengers before getting out of the car.Never step out of the car into moving traffic.

(4) Look for witnesses.Politely ask the witnesses (if any) to wait with you until the police come so that they can give their statements about the crash.

(5) Exchange contact information with the other driver for insurance and payment issues.

(6) Report the accident to your insurance company just in case you may need to file a claim.

And a final note: protecting your safety is the first priority after a car accident. Turn on your hazard lights as soon as possible and put up other signals behind the crash scene so that other drivers should proceed carefully and safely.

26. Car accidents normally happen _____.

- C. stay right behind the crash scene

[答案]B

A02 A cover letter is a letter of introduction sent along with a resume or curriculum vitae (CV). How do you write a successful cover letter? Bear these points in mind, and you'll always make a great impression.

Keep your cover letter brief and to the point. Writing more than one page is usually unnecessary. If it is sent in an email, writing three short paragraphs is quite sufficient.

Explain why you are sending a resume. Don't make the reader guess what you are asking for.

Tell specifically how you learned about the position or the organization—a flyer posted in your department, a web site, a family friend who works at the organization, etc.

Convince the reader to look at your resume. The cover letter will be seen first. Therefore, it must be very well written and targeted to that employer.

Call attention to your background—education, leadership, experience—that is relevant to the position you are seeking.

Provide any information specifically requested in the job advertisement that might not be covered in your resume, such as availability date, or references.

26. A cover letter is _____ page.

- A. usually more than one
- B. exactly one full
- C. usually no more than one

[答案]C

27. The reader will probably not pay attention to your letter if you _____.

- A. tell them where you have worked before
- B. do not ask him or her to guess what you mean
- C. do not state clearly your purpose in sending in the resume

[答案]C

28. It is also helpful to mention where _____.

- A. you learned about the position
- B. you found the flyer in your department
- C. you have left the cover letter in the company

[答案]A

29. What is relevant to the position you are looking for?

- A. Leadership and references.
- B. Education and experience.
- C. Experience and availability date.

[答案]B

30. The purpose of this piece of writing is to explain _____.

- A. how to write a good CV
- B. how to write a successful cover letter
- C. that a good cover letter is important

[答案]B

A03 A lawyer friend of mine has devoted herself to the service of humanity. Her special area is called public interest law (公共利益法).

Many other lawyers serve only clients who can pay high fees. All lawyers have had expensive and highly specialized training, and they work long, difficult hours for the money they get. But what happens to people who need legal (法律上的) help and cannot pay these lawyers' fees?

Public interest lawyers fill this need. Patricia, like other public interest lawyers, gets less money than some lawyers, because she is willing to take less money. Her clients have the help they need, even if they can pay nothing at all.

Some clients need legal help because stores have cheated them with bad goods. Others are in unsafe houses. Their cases are called civil cases. Still others are criminals (刑事犯罪), and they go to those public interest lawyers who are in charge of criminal cases.

These are just a few of the many situations in which the men and women who are public interest lawyers serve to extend justice (正义) throughout our society.

C01 Cyber security has always been a serious issue as the internet industry is ever growing.Nowadays,people can easily connect to the Internet with a simple click of a mouse.But the global network can be easily destroyed by a single leak.The world is facing a difficult situation in keeping web security.

Currently,there are no unified international rules for maintaining internet security.China has called for unified international rules against internet crime.Last year China (and some other countries) handed in a draft Code of Conduct on Information Security to the UN.

World leaders and experts discussed the possible internet threats facing the world.They agreed that the only way to deal with internet security threats was to trust each other and strengthen cooperation.The threats cannot be solved by any one country alone.And for these reasons,countries would have a greater chance of trusting each other in dealing with such threats.

Though great efforts were made to issue common regulations for the internet,few results have been achieved yet.There's still a long way to go for unified global internet security rules and regulations.

I01 It can be really frustrating (使人沮丧的) for an overweight person to go to a gym and work out with a positive attitude. All one has to do is walk by almost any nice gym and notice all the healthy, sweating, skinny members. Sometimes they stare at those of us who are, well, zaftig. It is easy to see the judgment behind their eyes. Who wants to put up with that?

Many people are self-conscious of their bodies and feel isolated when joining workout classes of while exercising, especially if they are larger than most of the others in the group. Now the fitness industry is finally paying attention. Popular gyms are catering (迎合) to overweight and weight conscious customers by dedicating areas where the skinny people are not allowed.

There are even gyms or programs that require members to be at least 50 pounds overweight to participate. Trainers recommend functional fitness as a practical goal, rather than six-pack abs (六块腹肌). (79) They often use text messages to stay in touch with customers.

Often at these specialized gyms, the trainers are overweight themselves, or working on their own weight goals, and this can help those people with anxiety caused by poor body image. The equipment has been designed for use by larger people. Wider seats, more cushioning, no mirrors, and tinted (有色的) windows for privacy, are all important changes.

(80) Hopefully these types of gyms will successfully grow in numbers in the future. The idea is a very simple and potentially popular one. If it helps those of us who are bigger exercise more and improve our fitness level, it's a step in the right direction.

1. The word zaftig in Paragraph 1 is closest in meaning to _____.

- A. fat
- B. healthy
- C. friendly

[答案]A

2. We can infer from the first two paragraphs that _____.

- A. most large gym chains really don't want members to show up frequently
- B. overweight people are often frustrated and pushed away by traditional gym industry
- C. regular gyms don't accept overweight people to participate in their programs

[答案]B

3. What is the training goal in the gyms catering to overweight members?

- A. To achieve functional fitness.
- B. To build six-pack abs.
- C. To look like a fitness model.

[答案]A

4. As for the gyms catering to overweight members, which of the following statements is NOT TRUE?

- A.The machines are designed for larger people.
- B.Tinted windows are used to ensure extra privacy.
- C.There are large mirrors on the walls.

[答案]C

- 5.Which of the following is the best title for the passage?

L01 Lilian Hanson, a college students, expects to graduate in about two years.What makes Mrs.Hanson different from her classmates is her age-73 years.She has been studying at college, a few courses at a time, for 27 years.

When Lilian Hanson graduated from high school, she went to the bank to borrow money for the further education.The banker gave her no encouragement.He didn't think that a country girl should borrow money to go to college.He thought she should be at home doing work in the house or around the farm.So Lilian Hanson went home and raised a family of nine children instead of going to college.Mrs.Hanson never forgot her dream of getting a higher education.When her children were grown, she tried again.

She finds the hardest part of going back to school at her age is to sit in class for long periods of time.Because she is not as quick as she used to be, Mrs.Hanson often gets up and walks around classes to keep from getting stiff (僵硬).At the beginning of a course in using the computer, the other students all stood up to give her a warm welcome when she introduced herself and explained why she was there and what her aims were.

1.Mrs.Hanson couldn't go to college immediately after she graduated from high school because_____.

V01 Volunteering is a great way to get work experience,and may be one of the most valuable experiences of your life.You learn new skills by trying new jobs.Better yet,you can meet people who can give you guidance and possibly help you to find a paid job later on.Employers will be impressed that you took the initiative to learn new things.You can learn how a charitable organization works.Best of all,you will be taking action to promote what you think is important and probably be helping someone else along the way.of considering volunteering as something you do for people who are not as fortunate as yourself,begin to think of it as an exchange.Consider that most people find themselves in need at some point in their lives.You may be the person with the ability to help today,but tomorrow you may be someone who needs others' help.Even now you might be on both sides of the service cycle: maybe you are a tutor for someone who can't read,while last month the volunteer ambulance corps rushed you to the emergency room.Volunteering also includes self-help.So if you are active in your neighborhood crime watch,your home is protected while you protect your neighbors' homes,too.It's a double win: your community or cause benefits from your work and you benefit from your experiences.In a word,adding your effort to the work of others makes everyone's lives better.

T01 The first year of school in America,known as kindergarten(幼儿园),usually begins between the ages of five and six.Among rich countries such a latest art is very strange.

President Obama believes it is an economic and social problem;his education secretary goes as far as to say that it is“morally wrong”.This statement has some support,as it is clear from research into vocabulary that youngsters from poor families enter kindergarten well behind those from rich families-a disadvantage that usually lasts a lifetime.Children from households on welfare knew 525 words by the age of three,while the children of professionals had mastered 1,116.

Pre-school can help close this gap.So in a speech last month,Mr.Obama called for a partnership between the federal government and the states to expand it to every American child.It later became known that“every”meant those who come from families within comes of up to 200%above the poverty line-equal to an income of$47,000fora family of four.

Some critics(评论家) say that sending children to school at the age of four does not work.The evidence suggests otherwise.For example,on March 20th new results were announced from a study of 9to11yearoldsin New Jersey.This report found that disadvantaged children who had attended pre-school had better literacy(读写能力),language,math and science skills.And two years of pre-kindergarten were better than one.

Some studies also follow the effects of early learning over lifetimes,such as its effect on crime rates and other factors that may eventually burden society.Critics have singled out a government scheme called Head Start,created imi9d 5,which provides poor households with a range of services including school-based early education.

A01 A cover letter is a letter of introduction sent along with a résumé or curriculum vitae (CV).How do you write a successful cover letter?Bear these points in mind,and you'll always make a great impression.

Keep your cover letter brief and to the point.Writing more than one page is usually unnecessary.If it is sent in an email,writing three short paragraphs is quite sufficient.

Explain why you are sending a résumé.Don't make the reader guess what you are asking for.

Tell specifically how you learned about the position or the organization-a flyer posted in your department,a web site,a family friend who works at the organization,etc.

Convince the reader to look at your résumé.The cover letter will be seen first.Therefore,it must be very well written and targeted to that employer.

Call attention to your background-education,leadership,experience-that is relevant to the position you are seeking.

Provide any information specifically requested in the job advertisement that might not be covered in your résumé,such as availability date,or references.

A02 A pedestrian was critically injured in a West wood area car accident near the corner of Wilshire Boulevard and Veteran Avenue early morning on January 5,2016.

The police said it involved a hit-and-run driver.The car was dark and was last seen traveling east on Ashton Avenue from Veteran Avenue.The investigation is ongoing.

It appears that the driver struck and seriously injured the pedestrian, and left the victim lying in the roadway without even stopping to help or call emergency personnel. Outrageous! Leaving the scene of an injury or fatal crash is a serious crime under California law. California Vehicle Code 20001 (a) states: The driver of a vehicle involved in an accident resulting in injury to a person, other than himself or herself, or in the death of a person shall immediately stop the vehicle at the scene of the accident.

We hope the driver in this case is arrested and brought to justice. If you have any information about the suspect or the vehicle, please visit the Hit-and-Run Reward website at hitandrunreward.com to offer a useful tip and become qualified for a $1,000 reward.

A03 A great resume is not just a complete list of employment and education. It's got to be a sales document. Your resume needs to make it very clear that you are highly skilled and an excellent candidate for the position. A few good resume tips areas follows

- Always personalize your resume for the position you are applying for. This will allow the employer to associate your experience with their job opening.

- Be brief and to the point in describing your responsibilities. Employers look for key skills and experience.

- Be original--to give the employer a reason to want to meet you. It is an advertisement of your potential value to the corporation.

- Include accomplishments, awards, recognition of any sort, and associations that are job-related. List your work experience, in reverse chronological order beginning with the most recent, relevant to your current job search. Not every employer is interested in everything you've done.

- Proofread your resume several times. Have others review your resume and offer helpful advice.

J01 Juvenile delinquency refers to criminal acts committed by children or teenagers, specifically anyone below the age of eighteen. These crimes hurt society and the children themselves.

There are many factors that cause juvenile delinquency.

Some children want to test their parents' or society's limits. Sometimes juvenile crimes happen because of a lack of rules and supervision. For example, many times children commit crimes after school and while their parents are at work.

Additionally, mental illness and substance abuse are main factors. 15%-20% of juveniles convicted of crimes have serious mental illnesses, when the range of mental illnesses widens, the percentages increase to 30%-90%. Also, many people believe, a child's environment and family are greatly related to their juvenile delinquency record. For example, the dynamics of a family can affect a child's delinquency rate.

Poverty level is another factor.

Finally, another cause could be the relationships a child has in school or outside of school. A positive or negative friendship can influence the chances of children becoming delinquents. Peer pressure is also at play. Relationships and friendships can lead to gangs, which are major factors in violent crimes among teens.

These are just some of the causes of juvenile delinquency.

26. Juvenile delinquency hurts the children themselves only. [答案]F

27. There are six reasons for juvenile delinquency according to the text. [答案]F

28. Parents should take some responsibility for juvenile delinquency. [答案]T

29. Poverty has something to do with juvenile delinquency. [答案]T

M01 My lovely hometown is located on the south shore of an island. It's a small town with only about 9,000 people and an area of about 3.8 square miles.

First, I want to talk about the people in the neighborhood. Generally speaking, people are very nice here, especially in the summer. I feel that in the summer everyone is in a great mood, and very generous. For example, one summer afternoon, I was at the gas station filling up my car and was short of money. Generously an old gentleman gave me the money to pay the gas attendant. That's the type of people you can expect from my hometown.

The greatest part about the town, in my opinion, is the location. The Great Bay is five minutes away from my house and it's fantastic. Another great thing is how close everybody lives to each other. With it being such a small town, all my friends live five minutes away, which is a great advantage to me and everyone else. Lastly, the nightlife is great. On any Saturday night every bar is packed with people, so there's always something going on.

So far I've explained the good side of my hometown, but there are also some boring things about it. It is great in the summer, but it is a different story in the winter. When winter comes around, the town turns into a "ghost town". This is because there is nowhere to go. The only thing we have is a shopping center. It would be nice if we had a few more options to choose from.
